

Every Patient Every Day

Celebrate your CNOR

You are a valuable member of the healthcare team and you have many reasons to celebrate your certification.

- You are personally and professionally committed to patient care.
- You are proficient in practice standards.
- Your patients are more confident in the care that they receive.
- You are more confident in your clinical abilities.
- You are committed to continuing education and lifelong learning.
- Your certification enhances your professional credibility to colleagues and supervisors.
- Your certification helps you to fulfill intrinsic rewards such as professionalism and accountability.
- Your fellow nurses highly value your certification.

Encourage your peers to join you as a certified member of the nursing community.
