Congratulations! You have passed the CNOR exam. On behalf of the Competency & Credentialing Institute (CCI), it is our privilege to congratulate you on successful completion of the certification program for professional achievement in perioperative nursing. Your achievement signifies your commitment to patient care and lifelong learning. You are entitled to use the designation "CNOR" after your name in the following manner: Jane Doe, RN, CNOR. No periods are used in CNOR®.

Within approximately four weeks, you will receive a packet of information and your certificate. We encourage you to logon to the CCI website at www.cc-institute.org for information on recertification and other important communication.

Congratulations again on achieving this significant professional milestone.

Sincerely,

The Competency and Credentialing Institute
